Sheriff Brown and Staff Welcome latest Grads

Bedford County, VA: Sheriff Brown recently attended graduation ceremonies of Central Virginia Criminal Justice Academy to congratulate the two newest Virginia-certified Field Deputies of BCSO. Sheriff's Office command staff, along with family and friends, came out to the Holiday Inn Select hotel in Lynchburg to cheer them on at the ceremony held this evening of June 23, 2010.

Becoming certified involves a grueling twenty-four weeks of physical fitness training, officer survival techniques, hand gun qualifications and compliance with the Department of Criminal Justice Services, law enforcement requirements.

The entire BCSO family is pleased to welcome Deputy Adam Hopkins and Deputy Lewis Kellison and congratulate them both, on a job well done.
